

Heritage Monday

August 12th, Cinema Rialto and La Residenza al Parco

Locarno Pro offers, in the framework of Heritage Online, a full day dedicated to Heritage Film industry, on Monday 12th of August 2024. Panel discussions on the state of the heritage film distribution, case studies and presentations of brand-new restored films, as well as industry screenings of classics will be the core of this day. As part of Heritage Monday, a selection of brand new restored classic films will be screened, including Le ore dell'amore by Luciano Salce (4K Restoration), Onda Nova by Francisco C. Martins and Jose Antonio Garcia (4K Restoration), L'allegement by Marcel Schupbach (4K Restoration), Mulher de Verdade by Alberto Cavalcanti (Locarno Film Festival's 4K Restoration, winner of the 2023 Heritage Contest, sponsored by Cinegrell Laboratories), Samba Traore by Idrissa Ouedraogo (Locarno Film Festival's 4K Restoration, sponsored by Cinegrell) and Street of No Return by Samuel Fuller (4K Restoration).

HERITAGE MONDAY ROUND TABLE

10:00am, @Residenza al Parco, Open to industry badge holders only, recorded.

A closer look into the revamped Home Video market

The Home Video market is increasing again for heritage films. We'll ask some of the international key players in the field, to tell us their strategies for re-releasing and packaging Blu-Rays nowadays and attracting their audiences.

With Ronald Chammah (Les film du Camelia), Vincent Paul-Boncour (Carlotta Films), K.J. Reith-Miller (Academy Museum of Motion Pictures), Manlio Gomasasca (Plaion/Severin), Frédéric Maire (Director, Cinematheque Suisse).

Moderated by Jay Weissberg (Director, Giornate del cinema muto di Pordenone)
